※ 다음 글을 읽고 물음에 답하십시오.

Suppose we asked you to keep track of all the emotions you experience in the course of a day. (A) You might report that for brief periods you felt happiness, sadness, anger, relief, and so on. (B) There is one emotion, however, that people often report as a kind of background noise for much of their day-to-day experience, and that is stress. Modern industrialized society sets a rapid, hectic pace for living. (C) People often have too many demands placed on their time, are worried about uncertain futures, and have little time for family and fun. (D) A stress-free life would offer no challenge—no difficulties to surmount, no new fields to conquer, and no reasons to sharpen your wits or improve your abilities.

12. 위글의 밑줄 친 부분 중 다음 문장이 들어가기에 가장 적절한 곳은?

But would you be better off without stress?

- ① (A)                      ② (B)
③ (C)                      ④ (D)

The main idea of the above passage is _____.

- ① Little stress can be helpful in one's life
② Different people struggle to overcome stress in different ways
③ People have difficulties coping with emotions, especially stress
④ Stress is a negative aspect of emotions to be removed for a better life

14. 다음 글은 무엇에 대하여 쓴 글인지 고르시오.

My life: The Early Years shows us the progress of a remarkable American, who, through his own enormous energies and efforts—fueled by an impassioned interest in the political process—made the unlikely journey from his birth in Hope, Arkansas, to his election as the 42nd President of the United States.

- ① Establishment of a political party
② Introduction of an autobiography
③ Excellence of American presidents
④ Unsuccessful journey of an American

15. 다음 대화에서 여자가 일하는 곳으로 가장 적절한 것은?

M: Yes, I'd like to make an appointment with Dr. Prince.

W: Have you ever been here before?

16. 밑줄 친 ㉠ 부분에 들어갈 단어로 가장 적절한 것은?

Communication is inherently a cooperative, social activity. As with any cooperative activity, there must be a basic level of trust and goodwill among the participants. This does not mean that each participant always has to be completely honest with the others (there is sometimes a need to tell "white lies"); it does mean that each participant should not try to deceive the others in a harmful way. ㉠ communication is not true cooperation. Plato and Aristotle argued that the ethical communicator is one who tries to promote the best interests of everyone involved in the communication.

- ① Because                      ② Otherwise
③ If so                          ④ Hence

17. 다음 글의 밑줄 친 부분에 들어갈 내용으로 가장 적절한 것은?

When I arrived in England I thought that I knew English. After I'd been here an hour I realized I did not understand one word. In my first week I learned a little of the language, but after seven years I knew that I could never use it really well. This is sad, but nobody speaks English perfectly. Remember that those five hundred words the ordinary Englishman uses most are not all the words in the language. You can learn another five hundred and another five thousand and another fifty thousand words after that and you will still find another fifty thousand _____.

- ① foreigners have some knowledge of
- ② you have already known
- ③ you have never heard of
- ④ foreigners use frequently

Depression is a psychological disorder characterized by negative mood such as feelings of sadness and despair, low self-esteem, pessimism, lack of initiative, and slowed thought processes. It may also involve disturbances in sleeping and eating patterns. Around 5 percent of the population will experience a major depression sometime during their lives. Many more suffer from brief, relatively mild bouts with the blues. Women are more likely than men to suffer from depression. Many factors including social context, physiological processes, and genetic inheritance may influence the onset and duration of a depressive episode. Social psychologists, however, have paid particular attention to the effects of cognitive factors on depression.

Which of the following is true about the above passage?

- ① Depression is a mental illness featured by positive mood of emotion.
- ② Men seem to be more affected by depression than women.
- ③ Depression seems to create sleep disorder like insomnia.
- ④ Little has been known about the relation between cognitive factors and depression.
